Organist / Choir Director

Job Type: Part Time

Salary: Compesurate with Experience

St. Matthew's Episcopal Church of Kenosha is a historical, progressive parish that worships in a traditional manner, recognizing that music, faith, and outreach unite us together as a community.

We are seeking a talented Organist / Choir Director who is familiar with the Anglican choral tradition, the Episcopal liturgical tradition and the church calendar. The successful candidate will be competent in choral music, including: plainsong, Anglican and Gregorian chant, as well as leading a choir. The Organist/Choir Director will work collaboratively with the Rector to grow and enhance the music ministry of St. Matthew's.

Here at St. Matthew's we have a fully restored 1924 E.M. Skinner Organ, installed in 1925 under the supervision of Mr. Skinner himself. We also have a grand piano, a single SATB voice choir, and a variety of other talented musicians within the congregation.

This position will be part time, 1,000 hours per year (average of 10 hours a week), which will include a weekly Sunday morning sung Mass, occasional seasonal Masses or services, a monthly practice time with the choir and Sunday morning choir warm-ups, and a regular worship planning meeting with the Rector. Weddings and funerals are handled and paid separately. Benefits included is 4 week's paid time off.

For consideration for this wonderful opportunity, please email resume and cover letter to stmatts5900@gmail.com or mail a hard copy to:
